5.5.87

When I feel God's love on me (us)
my mind almost reels! when He makes me dissolve in His Body and His Body annihilates mine it is then that I feel like air, like truly I am spirit without flesh! Ecstatic state? even these words cannot describe fully the state His love can bring me to.
His grace and goodness is impossible to describe, there are no words to describe such greatness and splendour of His Holiness. And to know how I, before His approach, rejected Him!

Yesterday after the end of God's Message I felt God in me and I in Him so very much, I felt
I could not separate ever.

My companion I love you, Vassula, give Me everything, give Me all you have.
I have given You my love, I have given you myself, I have detached my feelings from earth
I have surrendered, can I give You anything more?

daughter, I love to hear you surrendering
let Me be your Captor o I could feel Jesus

this evening so strongly that I could see distinctly His Face which was not easy the other times, this evening He seemed so very intense, fervour, eager,
like someone who comes determined with fervour
to convince someone who is luke-warm.

I have indeed earned a lot. Since I never practised religion, nor had a bible in the house since school time, and not having been to church since the baptism of my 1st son (15 years) You taught me many things. Yesterday the 12th May, in the evening while passing the stair-case level I stopped with this intense odour of incense. The smell reached up to the 2nd floor, I was surprised. I went and asked my son if he had lit a mosquito coil (although it did not smell at all like a coil, but pure church incense.) He said, no. I left this incident aside and got busy with other thing. One hour later I wanted to go in the study where I write to fetch a pencil, and while I entered the study again this intense beautiful odour of incense passed me by, it bathed me entirely ! I left that particular spot to see if it smelled elsewhere, no, there was no odour elsewhere except again where I, the second time, smelled it, again it was there covering me.

O beloved when I covered you with My odour I blessed you at the same time o

I discovered by reading today St Teresa that odours do exist. If they are from the devil it has a horrible stench so she says. Strangely enough this was like another proof to me given today to me to show me that the incense odour did come from Jesus. I was very happy!

14.5.87.

Today what joy; in reading the life of St. Teresa of Avila who had visions, I fell upon a vision she describes of hell and I was very pleased to find that her disciption fitted with my description of hell that God gave me, she explains it this way; "dark and closely confined; the ground seemed to be full of water which looked like filthy, evil-smelling mud"... etc. yes, the whole thing looked like a grotto, low-ceiling ... my description is in No.8 p. 55

Son's Body, Beloved Father hold away the evil spirit that now tempts me o
♡ amen as Jesus was writing it while I was saying it.

I suddenly realized, it was like I woke up after Jesus' prayer. I realized what was happening from the beginning of the message of today. Jesus was calling me to Holy Communion but I was pretending I was not understanding I even felt like answering, no. I was hurting Him and yet I was reluctant to reply, I made Him say it explicit. Jesus ran to my rescue, I felt I was about to fall. Just after His prayer (He prayed together with me), I realized that I had an evil spirit pulling on me. Strange feeling I had when I felt the evil spirit release his grip on me when the words came 'Beloved Father hold away the evil spirit that now tempts me.'

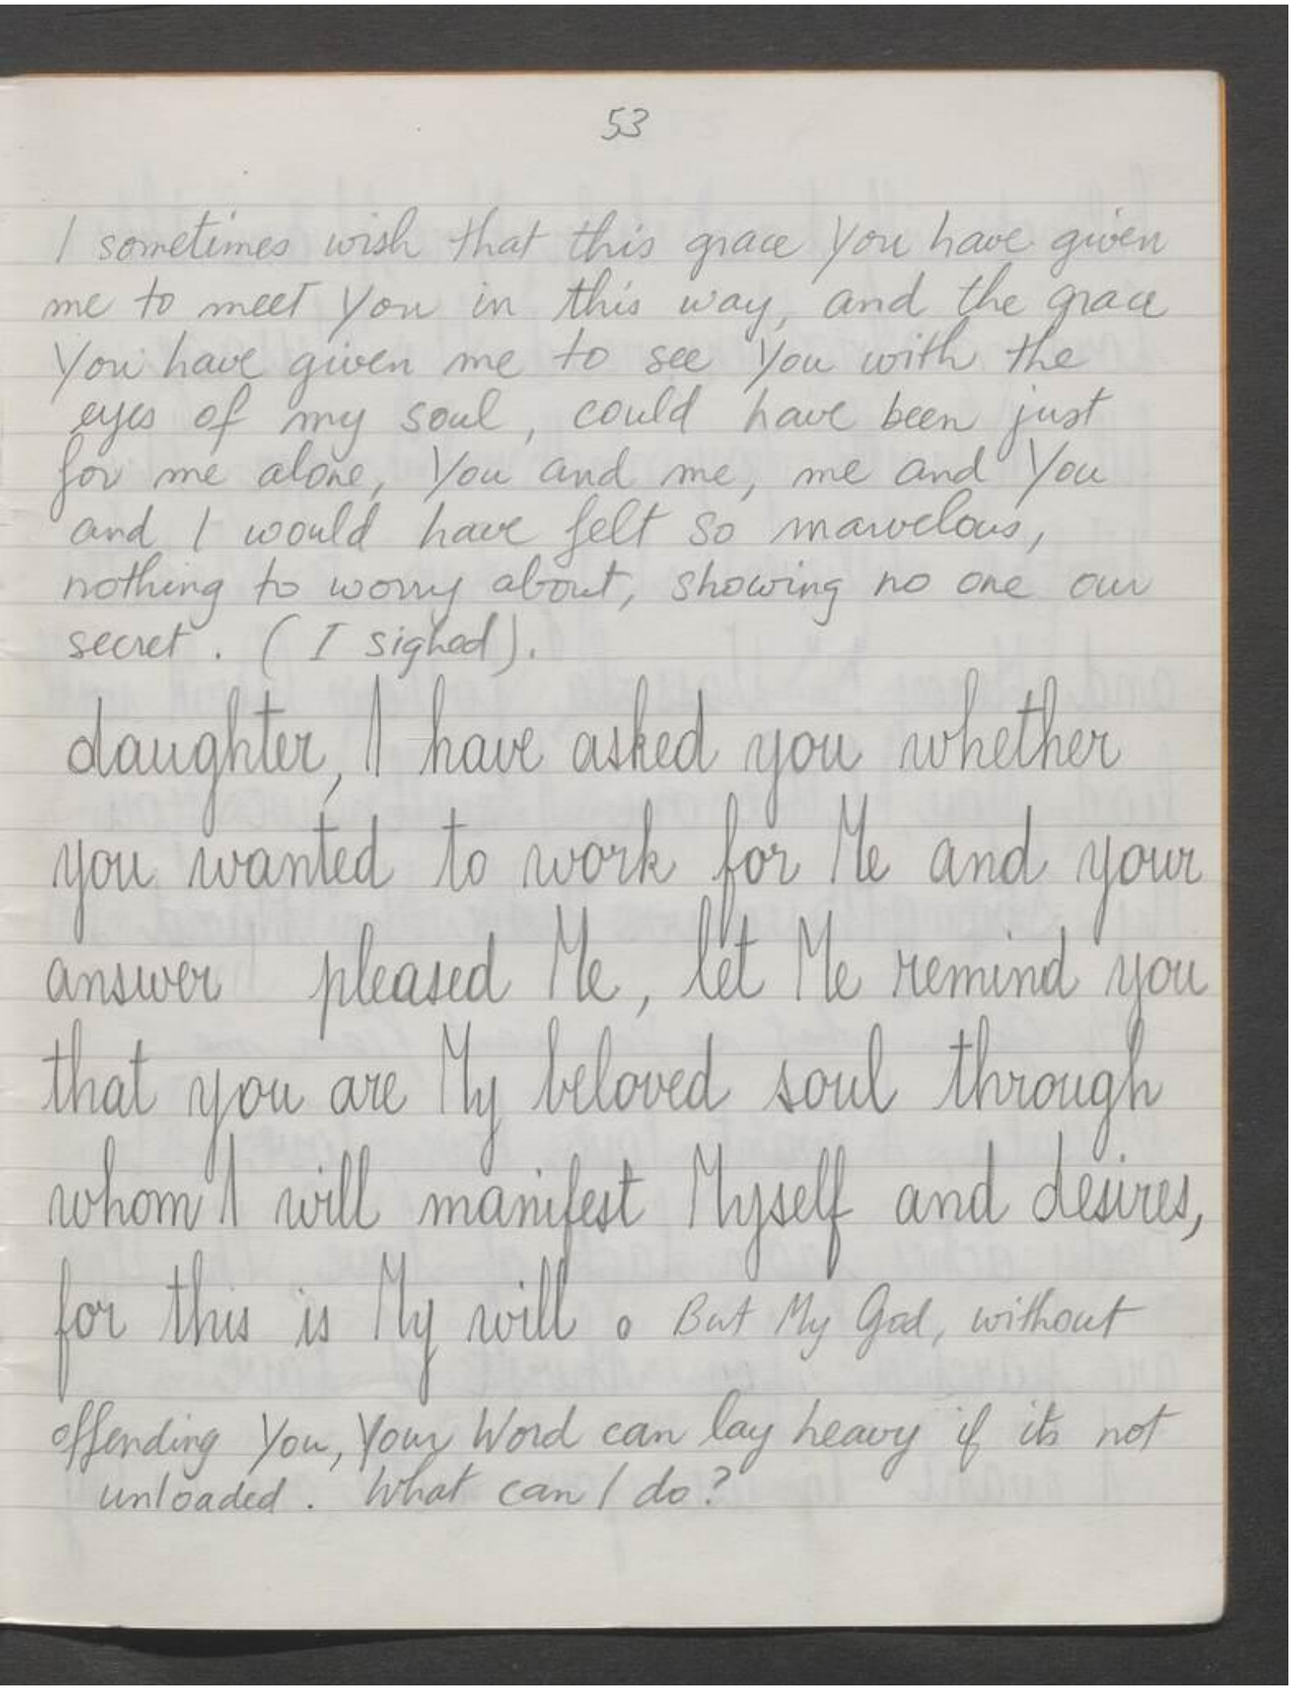
this guidance is from Me ♡

do You know Jesus what I long for?

I know daughter,



I sometimes wish that this grace You have given me to meet You in this way, and the grace You have given me to see You with the eyes of my soul, could have been just for me alone, You and me, me and You and I would have felt so marvelous, nothing to worry about, showing no one our secret (I sighed).

daughter, I have asked you whether you wanted to work for Me and your answer pleased Me, let Me remind you that you are My beloved soul through whom I will manifest Myself and desires, for this is My will o

But My God, without offending You, Your Word can lay heavy if its not unloaded. What can I do?

Babette came. She talked to Jesus. The 3 of us were together. Babette did not need to ask her question aloud. Her mere thought passing through her mind was instantly answered, with his own handwriting. Jesus, by this, is stimulating us about His real Presence and that He is calling us to become more intimate with Him and remember His Presence, loving Him.
